Marriage

Mrs. Mary Smith, 36, wife of Henry O. Smith, died at 8:50 p. m. Monday at the Central Clinic hospital of burns sustained in an accident at her home, south of Salem, early Friday morning, Feb. 10.

Mrs. Smith arose to take her son, Henry, Jr., 19-months-old, down stairs. She laid the child on the couch near the stove and was ready to return to bed, when her bathrobe of flannel material was ignited from the hot stove. She was severely burned from her waist to below her knees.

Lisbon High Graduate

Mrs. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Barnes, was born south of Salem and had spent most of her life in this vicinity. She attended Fairview school south of Salem, and after finishing the grades there was graduated from Lisbon High school. She attended Salem Business college. For 10 years prior to her marriage she was employed in the office of the Mullins Manufacturing corporation. She was a member of the Salem Christian church.

In 1927 she was married to Henry O. Smith. For a few years after their marriage they lived at Mansfield and Ashland. The last three years they have lived south of Salem.

Funeral Thursday

Besides her husband and little son, she is survived by her father, Clarence Barnes, and one brother, Joseph Barnes, who live south of Salem, and three sisters, Mrs. Clara McClurg, Patmos; Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, Millville, and Mrs. Ruth Anderson, Kansas City, Mo.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 p. m. Thursday at the Arbaugh funeral home, East State st. in charge of Rev. C. F. Evans, pastor of the Christian church.

Give Winona Play
Wednesday Night

WINONA, Feb. 21.—Under the auspices of the Winona Business Men's association, members of Bay and grange will present a play "The Gay Pretenders" at Butler grange hall near Winona Wednesday evening.

This play was to have been given earlier in February but was postponed on account of severe cold weather.

Entertainment between acts will be guitar and vocal selections and tap dancing.

Proceeds from the play will be used by the association to purchase suits for members of the Winona baseball team, and other equipment for the team.

River "On Fire"

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 21.—The Cuyahoga river "caught fire" and firemen worked more than an hour to extinguish the blaze.

It started from grease spilled over a 75-foot section from storage tanks.

15 States, in Race to Be
First, Definitely Set Out
On Road to Repeal Action42 Legislatures Now Meeting, Two More Convene In Spring; Dry Forces Line Up For Battle
of the States(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 21.—Fifteen states, spurred on by a desire to be the first, today definitely had set out on the road toward repeal of the prohibition amendment a few hours after congress put the question before them.

Franklin D. Roosevelt gave his encouragement within a few moments after the house had spoken.

But with his expressed gratification at the action of the house in concurring with the senate, the president-elect interpolated a further hope that the present congress in its dying days would fulfill another Democratic platform pledge by legalizing beer.

Each legislature are in session now to set up the convention necessary to strip all liquor legislation from the constitution except that provided for in the new amendment—protection for dry states against importation of intoxicants.

Forty-two legislatures are now meeting and two more—California and Florida—convene in the spring. Only four—Louisiana, Mississippi, Virginia and Kentucky—will not meet for a year or more.

Repeal Facts
In a Nutshell(By Associated Press)
Before the prohibition repeal resolution, passed yesterday by the house of representatives, can become the 21st amendment to the constitution—if that should be its destiny—it must pass through the following phases:

1. The secretary of state must send copies to the 48 governors. This step Secretary Henry L. Stimson was prepared to take today.

2. Conventions in three-fourths of the states must ratify the resolution within seven years.

When and if this action is taken the 18th amendment will have been repealed.

Thirteen states (one more than one quarter) could defeat repeal.

Prohibition leaders contend that more than the necessary 13 will hold firm for the 18th amendment. Rufus S. Lusk, official of the crusaders, anti-prohibition organization, claimed yesterday that at least 39 states, three more than necessary, would be in the anti-prohibition column.

This is the first time a proposed amendment has been submitted to state conventions. There therefore was some doubt as to procedure. Some constitutional lawyers believed congress should decide how and when the state conventions should be brought together.

Others believed it to be a matter for the states to determine. Despite this problem 15 state legislatures were taking steps toward summoning conventions. Of these Wyoming was in the van, with a bill to call a convention already adopted.

The resolution passed the senate by a 63 to 23 vote, 3 more than the necessary two-thirds. It passed the house by a 239 to 121 vote, 15 more than the necessary two-thirds.

The resolution, besides repealing the 18th amendment, carries a ban against interstate transportation of liquor in violation of the laws of any state.

MISSING BOY'S BODY IS FOUNDFear Is Believed to Have Caused Death of Tot,
Thought Kidnaped(By Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, Feb. 21.—Fright, induced perhaps by a sudden noise in the underbrush of a muddy ravine near his home, today was advanced as the most probable cause of the death of eight-year-old Ebert Holloran, for whom a nationwide search had been conducted.

Disappeared October 22
The lad, known among those who knew him by an unusually timid boy, disappeared Oct. 22, although police neighbors and Boy Scouts scoured the Washington park ravine for days, his body was not found until yesterday, where it apparently had lain since then.

The theory that fear caused his death was that of Coroner A. J. Pearce. He announced, after an autopsy, that Ebert had an enlarged thyroid gland. Such a condition, he said, often causes timidity to the extent that death by fright is possible.

But whether it was just the approaching darkness of night on that

IMPETUS TO MOVEWhite Expected to Send Message Recommending
Adoption(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Feb. 21.—Adoption by the senate of the Smolka resolution calling for submission of Ohio's constitutional prohibition amendment to a general vote, was predicted today.

As the time for the vote approached, sponsors of the resolution said the referendum proposal would gain more than the necessary three-fifths vote. Some were willing even to venture the guess that at least 23 of the 32 senators would be found in the affirmative column.

The resolution presented by Sen. John P. Smolka (D) of Cuyahoga county, was made a special order of business for 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Acts Quickly

It took the senate temperance committee less than a minute to report the resolution favorably last night.

Spurred by the action of the national house of representatives in voting to submit the repeal question to the states, Senator James E. Ford (D) of Ross county called his committee to order by declaring: "Gentlemen, the church bells are rung. You all know what this resolution is about. What do you want to do about it?"

Mr. Chairman, move the Smolka resolution be reported out for passage," said Senator Joseph N. Ackerman (R) of Cuyahoga county. There was a chorus of "ayes," and the committee adjourned.

White Adds Impetus

Added impetus also was given the move to push the resolution through by Gov. George White. The governor was expected to send messages to the assembly today, recommending not only the adoption of the Smolka resolution, but also setting up the machinery for a state convention to consider ratification of the federal repeal. One bill to set up this machinery is pending before the senate, and Ackerman, announced he would submit another.

The first move for a state-wide vote on the dry amendment was started in the house of Rep. John F. McCreary (D) of Erie county, but it fell 13 votes short of the necessary two-fifths. Another attempt to pass it is scheduled for Wednesday.

Discusses Schools

At Grange Meeting
Earl Miller, Hanoverton, gave a talk relating to the school system of Ohio at a meeting of Guilford grange Saturday evening.

The speaker was given the third and fourth degrees. The lecture hour program was composed of these numbers:

Song by a trio composed of Mrs. E. G. Cox, Mrs. Frank Groomes and Mrs. John Pike; roll call response, "Washington and Lincoln Quotations," reading, Genesta Coppock; recitation, Louise Hanna; playlet, "Alfred Gamble and Ray Thomas; recitation, Margie June Hanna.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gamble and Mrs. Alfred, were in charge of a stunt. Refreshments were served.

At a meeting on March 4 the roll call topic will be "Items of Interest Concerning the Inauguration."

Rubber Factory(By Associated Press)
SHANGHAI, Feb. 21.—Eighty-one persons were killed, 120 were injured and ten were missing today after an explosion in two gasoline vulcanizers in a Chinese rubber factory in East Shanghai.

Of the 120 injured fifty were taken to hospitals while the remainder escaped with only slight injuries.

These figures appeared to be the total toll of the blast as rescuers virtually completed a search of the ruins. Police had believed earlier that the death toll might reach 200.

Of the known dead 79 were girls and two men.

Grants Injunction
Against Rail Line(By Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, Feb. 21.—Federal Judge Samuel H. West granted an injunction today against construction of 12 miles of railway line between Smith's Ferry, Pa., and Negley, O., by the Pittsburgh Coal company. He ruled that the construction was a violation of the interstate commerce act.

The ruling will stop construction of the line pending possible further court action by the Pittsburgh Coal company.

Simultaneously Judge West dismissed as defendants in the case the Clay Products Railway company, the Youngstown Suburban Railway company, and J. E. White. He dismissed the Montour railway and the Northern Montour railway also, holding they had never been served in the injunction proceedings.

The injunction was granted against the Pittsburgh Coal company, the Hine, McKinley coal company, the Reilly and Quinn contractors, the Reilly and Quinn company, contractors, and the Pittsburgh, Lisbon and Western railway.

Plan Attractive
Concert Program

Arrangements were nearing completion today for a concert, sponsored by the Salem Transylvanian-Sachsen male choir, for the benefit of Salem Associated Charities at the high school auditorium Tuesday night, Feb. 28.

A program of 16 numbers, including songs by the male choir, selections by the Quaker City band and numbers by the Music Study club, will be completed Wednesday, M. B. Kraus, member of the committee in charge of arrangements, announced today.

Other members of the committee are Ralph Sturgeon and E. L. Gilson of the Quaker City band. Mrs. E. D. Dyal, representing the Music Study club, and Matthias Krasser, Anthony Simball, Godfrey Ryan and George Konner of the Transylvanian-Sachsen club.

All proceeds of the concert will be turned over to the Associated Charities unit. Tickets will be placed on sale here tomorrow.

Included on the program will be talks by Mayor John M. Davidson, R. W. Hawley and Atty. H. L. McCarty.

Members of the Salemans of the high school dramatic organization, are rehearsing daily for the playlet, "George Washington in Modern Life," which will be presented Friday night in connection with the entertainment at the Masonic temple.

The entertainment will comprise the playlet, followed by a dance.

The cast of the playlet follows: Ellen, Kathryn Ladd; Bob, Robert Clunan; Chet, Robert Snyder; Judy, Eddie Long; Father, Time; Ralph, Long; Carl, Max Long; Louise, Ruth Obener; Emily, Mary Ruth Green; Betty, Dorothy Astor; Daisy, Dorothy Benninger; George, Washington, Troy Cape; Tom, Duane Dilworth; Ed, Robert Carey.

The playlet is scheduled to begin at 8 o'clock.

Man, Woman Die
From Gas Fumes

COLUMBUS, Feb. 21.—Victims of fumes from a lighted gas stove, a man and woman were found dead in a bedroom of their home here at night.

They were Frank Ringwald, 59, and his sister, Eva Ringwald, 69. Coroner Edward E. Smith said the couple apparently had been dead about five days.

The body of Miss Ringwald lay face downward on the floor. Her brother's body was on a bed. Police forced a lock to enter the house when neighbors reported the couple missing.

Letters found in the room showed that the victims are survived by a brother, in Chillicothe.

MAYOR TO MAKE
BUDGET REPORTIndicates He Will Discuss Measure At Council Meet

Mayor John M. Davidson, in whose hands rests the 1933 appropriation ordinance, approved by city council more than a week ago, said today that he will make his report on the budget at a meeting of council at 7:30 tonight.

Davidson has not as yet signed the budget and also has refused to take any action towards vetoing the measure, saying that he wished to "make an extensive study" of appropriations for the current year.

The budget, fixing 10 per cent reductions in salaries and wages of appointive officers and city workers, was passed at a special meeting of council on Monday night, Feb. 12.

The salaries of council and Auditor K. Webster, elective officers, were reduced in the budget measure. Since then Treasurer Earl Beardmore proffered a 10 per cent cut in his pay.

Mayor Davidson has until Wednesday night to approve or veto the measure. If he fails to act the ordinance becomes a law without his signature.

REV. C. F. BAILEY
HITS LAZINESSIt's One of Factors Holding Back Churches,
He Tells League

"Laziness and indifference are holding the churches back," declared Rev. C. F. Bailey, pastor of the First Friends church, in an address at the gospel service sponsored by the Men's Personal Workers league Monday evening at the league room, South Broadway.

Rev. Bailey continued "If the time spent in reading newspapers, listening to talk-shows over the radio, working jigsaw puzzles and attending picture shows were devoted to reading the Bible and prayer we would have such a revival here as would shake old Salem."

Man of Nazareth, Theme
"The Poor Wise Man of Nazareth" was the theme of Rev. Bailey's talk. "The wisdom that comes from God is better than the wisdom of man. Unless your learning comes from the Father above it is worthless," he said.

"Environment is no excuse for not being a Christian, nor is training any excuse."

"We hear it said 'Don't say anything against the high school teacher or college professor who does not believe in Christianity. It is because of his training or scientific knowledge.' Where did the learning of the 12-year-old boy of Nazareth, who astounded the old Jewish scholars in the temple, come from? The law of the survival of the fittest should give place to the law of Christian love."

"How is it that Junior Lehman, who started to preach at the ripe age of nine, and who studies six hours a day, is, at the present age, a leader?"

Arrangements for the party were completed at a meeting of the social committee last night. Prizes will be awarded to the high scores. Lunch will be served.

Outcome of Vic-
tim's Injuries

LeRoy Wilcox, 27, of near Damascus, is in the Central Clinic hospital in a critical condition today, suffering from injuries received when he was struck by an automobile while walking along the Salem-Garfield rd. north of Salem, at 6:30 p. m. Monday.

Norwood C. Wilkinson, Salem automobile salesman, residing near Garfield, is in the Mahoning county jail, Youngstown, held on an open charge as the driver of the machine which struck Wilcox.

Wilcox Near Death

Wilcox is reported by Central Clinic attaches to be lying at the point of death, suffering from a fractured skull, concussion of the brain, cuts and bruises about the body and other injuries.

The accident is reported to have occurred as Wilcox, leaving the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Wilcox, on the Salem-Garfield rd., was walking along the highway enroute to his home. Wilcox's machine, which, according to reports by Salem patrolmen, was enroute west, struck Wilcox and knocked him into a ditch.

Wilkinson's car careened off the highway into a nearby field where it was wrecked.

Wilkinson sustained a bruise on his forehead, a cut lip and a leg injury. After the accident he walked home in a dazed condition, his wife telephoning E. H. Althouse of the Althouse-Brown Motor company where Wilkinson is employed.

Wilkinson, still in a dazed condition, was unable to provide any details of the mishap.

Finds Wilcox in Ditch

Receiving the telephone call, Althouse and his father-in-law, Les Camp of Salem, drove to the scene of the accident. Searching for the bumper which had been knocked from the automobile in the wreck, Althouse, walking to the ditch adjacent to the highway, found Wilcox.

Althouse ran to the home of Emil Stanley from where he telephoned authorities and called the Arbaugh ambulance.

Patrolman George Earley notified the sheriff's office in Youngstown. Deputies Paul Hayden and George Lisko responded. They questioned Wilkinson and then took him to the Youngstown jail.

Wilcox was in the ditch four hours, police said, before he was taken to the hospital.

Chairman of O. S. U.
Prom Disappears

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 21.—Police today turned their attention to the mysterious disappearance of Herbert Brownlee, chairman of the Junior prom at Ohio State university.

Fraternity brothers charged Brownlee was abducted by rival factions in campus politics. They received a telegram which read: "Sorry, but you will have to do your prom without the presence of the chairman." It was signed, "Just to get even."

Brownlee, whose home is in Mount Lebanon, Pa., disappeared yesterday afternoon, after leaving the Sigma Pi fraternity house. The fraternity brothers said he was president of the Buckeye Independent Combine, which defeated the Scarlet and Gray in a recent campus election.

AN ENTRANCING GAME

While huge ships cut through the rolling waters of the Pacific and planes droned half-seen in the clouds overhead, the appropriations committee of the house of representatives, mindful of the importance of the navy's war games, was giving that branch of the government more than $300,000,000 with which to continue the work of defending the nation in 1933-34.

When the final reports on the important maneuvers that have been taking place along the Pacific
seaboard the last week are published, one thing is certain to appear. The admirals and their advisers will have detected many serious
insufficiencies in equipment.
The picture they sketch will be dark. The United States virtually is at the mercy of wicked and aggressive foreigners.

Significantly, the navy department does not name a victor at the close of the war games. Many weeks are required to determine precisely who won in the sham
fighting between the "blue" and
"black" fleets. Defending the nation ceased long ago to be a matter of repulsing the enemy's fleet. If there were to be an armada sent against the United States today, its attack would come under the water,
on the water and in the air. Victors and losers, themselves, may be confused about their identity until the statisticians have gone to work.

But, to the unofficial eyes of newspapermen observing this year's attack of the "black" fleet on San Francisco and San Pedro, it seemed that the defending forces, with a disadvantage in mobile equipment, proved that there is less danger from an invader equipped with airplanes than theorists have tried to prove. Lurid descriptions of the horror of war when aviators will sprinkle death on civilians from the face of the invader's disadvantage
in launching and landing the bomb-dropping brood.

In short, the problem of air raiding was left very much in doubt.
But while planes were skimming
on and off the deck of the Saratoga
and the other carriers of the United States navy, congressmen were fretting over their inability to squeeze enough money from taxpayers to provide more and larger airplane facilities. Their worry represented clearly the exact nature of national armaments—a frantic race to nowhere to get away from something. Taxpayers should be thankful that it will be a few million dollars cheaper this coming fiscal year.

EIGHTY YEARS
Giuseppe Zangara, hearing himself sentenced to 80 years in prison for the destruction he spread with a revolver the night of Feb. 15th, dares the judge to make it an even 100 years and admits that he is sorry for one thing. He didn't succeed in his intention of killing President-elect Roosevelt.

It appears that the demented
little fellow is going to escape the penalty for murder. The two most seriously wounded victims of his wild shooting, Mayor Cermak of Chicago, and Mrs. J. H. Gill, a Miami resident, have been recovering slowly. Unless something unexpected happens, both will recover.

Social revenge is satisfied with the punishment already given. If two more charges of attempt to murder are proved against him and if he is sentenced to the maximum term of 20 years for each, Giuseppe Zangara, who wanted to kill somebody because a pain in his stomach
aided him in thinking thoughts of violence, will be sentenced to spend 120 years in prison.

For the present, if his attitude of hardened assurance that he had the right idea and was prevented

from carrying it out by the possibility of fate persists, he has no capacity for understanding what has happened to him. It will not be easy for a man who has brooded over the evil of the world to realize that the rest of his life will be spent in a place where nothing matters.

Zangara doesn't like the way
capitalists take all the money, he says. Tens of thousands of others harbor the same resentment, but fortunately for capitalists and those who stand near them there are few potential assassins. The capitalists, on the other hand, viewing the wreckage of what still offers possibilities of being a fine system of living, wonder why they should be hated when they have done no wrong. They can be glad that the president-elect escaped, that Zangara is safe in jail and that the failure of his foolish attempt to straighten out the world by killing
a man who needs vastly more power than his people will turn over to him is a lesson to others who might think of doing the same insane deed. And Zangara, with his depressing stomach ache and addled
head, can be thankful that he has many decades less than 80 or 120
years to worry over his failure to save the world with his shiny revolver.

What Others Say

SAFE KEEPING
The problem of how to keep a possession safely has been solved in curious ways at times. Not many people really hoard money in the top of an old stocking, perhaps, but lots of folk sew it into the mattress.
In China they hide silver and ornaments in the brick walls of their houses; early Americans frequently buried gold coins under the stones
of the hearth.

Valuable no longer are kept in the form of gold, silver or jewels.
Insurance policies, titles to real estate and mortgages have taken their places, but these, too, must be preserved. Probate Judge Lyons, of Howell, says the commonest receptacle for precious papers is the tin box, originally developed as a convenient way to send dispatches
by horseback, or by ship. An old trunk, full of tins and yellowed
letters, frequently yields the long-sought will, as well. A metal broochbox with a string tied around it is often used. Doll trunks that children once played with also figure occasionally in the settlement of an estate.

As devices to preserve documents
from fire and thefts, all these are,
of course, useless. For real utility,
the safety deposit box at the bank

Bank Dictatorship Proposed
To Solve Michigan's Problem

Governor Comstock May Be "Mussolini" Over State
Financial Institutions for Period of Emergency.
May Extend "Bank Holiday" Period.

Gov. W. A. Comstock

Although the banking situation in Michigan looks much brighter now than it has done at any time since Governor William A. Comstock declared the eight-day holiday that closed every bank in the State, financial leaders believe that a strong right hand is needed on the helm, and to that end have proposed the granting of dictatorial powers to the Governor for the period of the emergency. That the idea of making the State Chief Executive a financial dictator is receiving serious consideration is evident from the action of the State Senate in adopting a resolution, declaring that an emergency exists and ruling that the authority of the Governor under such a condition is supreme. In the event of the proposition becoming law, Governor Comstock will be empowered to extend the period of the present "eight-day banking holiday" or he may allow the banks to reopen with the proviso that they restrict withdrawals to a certain percentage of the deposits. In the meantime the big industrial corporations, motor companies and the like, are meeting their payrolls from temporary banks, operated with cash brought from Chicago and New York. Governor Comstock is hopeful that everything will pan out all right, and professed pleasure at the calm public acceptance of the extraordinary measures. He declared that the entire absence of hysteria enabled those working towards a solution of the problem to make "real progress."

Twenty Years Ago

(Issue of Feb. 21, 1913.)

Considerable rivalry has existed
in the city among the roller skaters
and to settle the championship of Salem a race has been arranged for Saturday night. Earle Montgomery, Walter Cowap, Charles Lee and Lawrence Shar will compete for the championship.
Miss Pearl Estill and James Shaw
of East Liverpool, were married Thursday night by Rev. W. L. Swan
at his home here. Mrs. Shaw, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Estill, formerly lived at Franklin Square.
J. R. Bustard and E. W. Silver,
who have been spending several weeks in Panama, visiting different points of interest, returned home
Friday morning.
East Palestine — The McGraw
Tire & Rubber company of Ohio
will be incorporated at Columbus
with a capital stock of $1,000,000
divided into 10,000 shares. The company is now operating here under a Pennsylvania charter. Additions are being made to the plant and the company expects to employ more than 500 men.
Charles O. Manspeaker left Friday morning for Los Angeles, Calif.,
where he will spend some time visiting. He may locate in the west.
Ira Bratman returned to his home
in Pittsburgh Friday morning after spending a few days here.
Miss Henrietta Hewitt, 54, died Thursday night. She had been in ill health for two years. Miss Hewitt, a native of Pennsylvania, had lived in Salem and vicinity since childhood.

Mrs. Charles Ward, Washington
st. entertained members of the Modern Priscilla club Thursday afternoon. Some of the guests were from Lisbon and Steubenville.

Misses Ethel Stirling and Louise Burchfield will spend Saturday and Sunday with relatives and friends
in Pittsburgh.

A party of Salem people went to Cleveland Friday to spend two days.
Among them were Mr. and Mrs. L. H.
Brush, F. R. Paw, E. W. Silver,
Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bustard and A.
O. Silver.

Catarrhal Deafness
Can Be Relieved

Persons suffering from catarrhal
deafness or head noises due to catarrh will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected relief after other treatments have failed.

Secure from The J. H. Lease
Drug Co., or your druggist, one ounce of Parmit (Double Strength).
Take this home and add 1-4 pint hot water and a little sugar. A tablespoonful four times a day should stop distressing catarrhal head noises, improve hearing, make breathing easier and dry up mucous discharge. All catarrh sufferers
need Parmit. Adv

B. S. BUNTING—MANAGER

NEW YORK
Day by Day
by O.O. McIntyre

NEW YORK, Feb. 21—Social prestige seems no longer a burning desire of the whirl So little is it regarded that several high-ups are reputed to have asked their names
be omitted from the Social Register—that $7.50 tome that is such a boom to apathy and specialty shop
managing.

Eliza Maxwell, a bit over-pressented as a grand thrower of the dice among the sniffish here and abroad now offers every notch in the human scale at affairs she exploits. The small-time hooper meets the adorable Lady Whoozie. And nobody arches a brow.

At rumpus tables in upish cafes,
Gold Coast hot-toties have had to give way to those stamped with the creamy celebrity of Broadway.
Proprietors would rather have a Mae West or a Peggy Whatyoucall-
it than a current blue blood. Vital people like Mae West cause talk talk fills cafes.

Opening nights of important
theatricals may see aristocrats back of the orchestra. While front pews
are dotted with tabloid headlines—
Daddy Browning and his orchid, a Dutch Schultz, a reigning Wall Street bear or the platinum pattern of a penthouse scandal. The most publicity wins.

Increasingly frozen enthusiasms
for Jimmy Walker mark every newsworthy shot. At first it was as though he might have been the target for a well-organized campaign of silence. Then came sporadic booming, but lately the roar on is a loud, sustained and virginal hissing, especially pronounced when he is shown with Betty Compton. Those who might tolerate Walker, it seems, cannot stand for his girl friend.

Incidentally, the Embassy, which originated the all-newsreel policy,
is a sort of town pump for the metropolis. The patronage is regular, everybody knows the doorman,
the directors in the reception hall
and the ushers. In the audience
may be seen Charles M. Schwab, Nathan Burkan, Owen Young,
Damon Runyon and such. I am told it's the only public place where Colonel Lindbergh sees films of himself.

In the shine of a Broadway shop window the other evening, was a face vaguely familiar. I skirted around several times and finally said: "You are someone I know and I've been trying to figure who." He looked blank and half suspicious.
"Never saw you in my life," he said,
then murmured something and
moved on, leaving me slightly confused. And such are the complexities of the human mind that I stayed awake most of the night trying to place him. Although I don't care
a hoot.

And, during my wakefulness, I happened to look out a window into

Youngest Legislator

To this young man belongs the distinction of being not only the youngest member of the South Carolina House of Representatives, but also the youngest lawmaker in the United States. He is J. Frost
Walker, 21, who though not yet
through with college, was elected on a platform of tax reform, betterment of the laboring man and lessening of the State's demands upon the counties. His grandfather and father preceded him in the General

—Hang On Coughs

Here's good news for the people of the U. S. A.—Canada's Greatest cough and cold remedy can now be purchased in this country (made in America) so no longer will you need to worry about how to best treat
these Winter nuisances.

Yes! Way up North where coughs are coughs and colds are so mean
and tough and dangerous that only a powerful, efficient remedy can tame and subdue them—Buckley's Mixture (triple strength) is the one real safe medicine that completely puts them out of business.

And the vast majority of the people up there know all this and put their faith in and swear by Buck-ley's Mixture.
If Buckley's is so supremely beneficial in cold snowy Canada it certainly will work just as surely here.

New York!

Katherine Brush was telling of the young married couple on Park Avenue who had reached life's dies.
Eviction faced them. Most of their furniture and household articles
had been pawned and their servants dismissed. They sat about a room in hopeless dejection when the dumb elevator buzzed and a voice
cried: "The garbage man is here!"
"Send some up," yawned the lady of the house.

Someone writes that young Clyde Beatty, the animal trainer, has succeeded Johnny Weissmuller as something brand new in Hollywood lady killers. Three years ago, he was a shy boy from a farm near Chillicothe, O. A circus runaway

Social Affairs

BOOK CLUB

Mrs. Irving Megrill was named president of the book club for the 1933-34 season at the annual business session in connection with a meeting Monday afternoon at the parlor of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mrs. Roscoe McConner and Mrs. G. D. Keister were chosen first and second vice presidents, respectively. Mrs. E. I. Smith, as secretary, and Mrs. Ralph Long treasurer. Mrs. Ada Hawkins is the non-official member of the executive committee.

"My Most Embarrassing Moment" was the roll call "nose" and this was an interesting feature of the program.

Following the "Fostered News" Dr. Sylvia Morron gave the members three messages from President Herbert Hoover, and from President-elect and Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt.

Mrs. Winifred Baker entertained with a group of humorous readings and a humorous sketch. "The Runaways" was given by Mrs. S. J. Broomall and Mrs. J. L. Gray.

Mrs. Gertrude Stewart played the accompaniment for the group singing and Mrs. J. A. Fehr read an article relating to the history of The Whitehouse.

The next meeting will be on March 6.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

Plans were made for a pig roast for the members and the Pythian Sisters, when Salem lodge No. 142, Knights of Pythias, held a meeting Monday evening at the hall, North Broadway.

The roast will be on March 4 at the hall. L. H. Detrow gave a report of the county meeting at Columbiana last week.

D. F. Triem of Pittsburgh, a member of the lodge here, attended this meeting. Talks were given by several of the members.

CHILDREN'S PARTY

Games and contests contributed to a jolly time enjoyed by a group of children who were guests of Barbara Williams at a Washington's birthday party Saturday afternoon at her home, East State st.

The home was made attractive with the national colors. Supper was served at 5 o'clock and the table was prettily decorated in keeping with the occasion.

Mrs. L. H. Jones, Pittsburgh, spent Monday with Mrs. C. A. Bumbaugh, North Ellsworth ave. Mrs. Jones was accompanied home by her husband, Dr. Jones, who spent the day in Cleveland while she visited here.

Miss Helen Riethe of Alliance spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freed, East Seventh st.

Mrs. Harold Cox, Fair ave, was a Canton visitor Tuesday.

A medicine that brightens people's lives

Fortunately for most of us, a state of happy health does not depend on strength. But like any other piece of machinery, the human machine must be properly regulated to run right.

There is a simple means of regulating the system. It makes an amazing difference in the way your organs function and the way you feel.

It pays most men and women to try this regulation. You may consider yourself in fairly good health today, and after only two weeks' regulating realize you were only half alive.

This means of stimulating the system to new life is a prescription, and it is known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is derived from fresh herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. Every druggist keeps it on hand. Get some today, and take some tonight. One spoonful drives away a bilious headache. A larger dose relieves any constipated condition. A little now and then keeps an older person protected from auto-intoxication. And it may be given any time to sluggish children.

Whole households have blessed this family doctor's prescription. It has saved old and young from sluggish spells—and from downright sickness. It's the only tonic you may need; the only laxative you need. It is the most likeable and remarkable medicine you ever tasted.

Try one bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and compare your condition with how you felt before!

found itself still facing difficulty. Constitutional authorities were split as to whether the state legislatures or congress should provide for setting up the convention machinery.

Such eminent students of constitutional law as Representative Beck, a Pennsylvania Republican, and former solicitor general, and A. Mitchell Palmer, former Democratic attorney general, took opposing views, with the latter insisting that the power belonged to congress.

Representatives Laguardia (R. N. Y.) and Chairman Summers of the house judiciary committee promptly introduced bills to provide for the conventions.

Little Hope For Enactment

With the expressed opposition, however, of Speaker Garner and other leaders, who believed with Beck, that the state legislatures should have a chance to act, little hope was voiced for enactment of these measures.

In many of the legislative executive chambers over the country scant attention was being paid to this dispute and movements went forward to set up the conventions. Wyoming was away out ahead for its legislature has already passed and the governor has signed a bill to provide for the constitutional convention.

Other states in which action was begun in some quarter yesterday are Massachusetts, New York, Ohio, Wisconsin, Georgia, New Jersey, West Virginia, Arizona, Missouri, Delaware, California, Michigan, Iowa, and Pennsylvania. First of the dry law supporters to predict "a fight to the finish" was Edward B. Dunford, general counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, who said it would be carried on in the election of delegates, and if necessary, in legal proceedings.

Claims "New Party"

Another thought was advanced by Mrs. Henry W. Peabody, general chairman of the woman's national committee for law enforcement, who asserted that the repeal resolution had brought the birth of a new party.

Asserting that the congressional action on repeal "bartered public health and safety," Mrs. Jesse J. Nicholson, head of the National Woman's Democratic Law Enforcement League, joined in the call for the April meeting.

Both the wet and dry leaders were reluctant to discuss in detail the states which were being depended upon to furnish the necessary votes for one side or the other.

Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, has predicted that at least one-half of the states would disapprove the resolution. Thirteen could block ratification.

One leader of a feminine group favoring the dry laws, but who asked that her name not be used, enumerated possible dry states as Kansas, Nebraska, Alabama, Mississippi, Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Arkansas, Idaho and Oklahoma.

Rufus S. Lusk, legislative representative of the Crusaders, a wet organization, said it would "be easier to name the dry states than the wet states."

"Can Do No Harm"

Joseph Shouse, president of the association against the prohibition amendment, said any action taken by the state legislatures—can do no possible harm and may advance substantially the opportunity for decision.

Dr. Edwin C. Dinwiddie, secretary of the national conference of organizations supporting the eighteenth amendment, said:

"The people will be guilty of colossal folly if they change the national prohibition policy for the illusory prospect of promoting temperance, reducing unemployment, benefiting agriculture, improving business, securing law enforcement and better social trade."

The beer bill, to which Mr. Roosevelt alluded, is awaiting senate action. Democratic Leader Robinson was uncertain of its changes, while Speaker Garner said the house was ready to act on the senate changes if the bill comes back.

Court News

Common Pleas Entries

In the case of The First National Bank of East Palestine against Samuel White, an action pending since June 9, 1927, the court has approved the report of the receivers, who are Attorneys W. O. Wallace of Columbiana and L. M. Kyes of East Palestine.

After the court ordered the receiver to commence an action against the Great American Insurance Co. and The Farmers Insurance Co. Jacob Ashman as receiver in the case of Ethel A. White against Frank W. White, filed such a petition, seeking recovery of $1,050 claimed to be owing as a result of a fire loss Dec. 29, 1931. The petition was filed by Attorney L. M. Kyes.

Name Receiver

Because S. E. Sayre, as receiver in the case of G. L. Brook against The Athletic Club of East Liverpool, leaving the county, Judge W. F. Lones has entered an order removing Sayre from the trust and has appointed Don B. Shay as receiver, with bond placed at $500. Sayre has been ordered by the court to turn all property held by him in trust in this cause turned over to Shay.

A motion on the petition has been overruled in the case of Joseph Miller against The Western & Southern Life Ins. Co. and in which exceptions have been entered for the defendant.

Leave has been granted the defendants to file an answer at once in the case of the Union Joint Stock Land Bank against Guy E. Peterson and others.

Two damage actions filed against Forrest C. Carpenter of Hanoverton by Harrison L. McCarthy and Joseph B. Iden have been settled out of court, and without further record. The petitions were filed Feb. 2 last. The suits were based on an automobile accident in the south last Christmas day.

In the case of Lucille Smith against the City of East Liverpool, the court has granted leave to the plaintiff to file an amended petition at once.

Sale Confirmed

A sale has been confirmed a deed ordered and a decree of distribution entered in the case of Catherine J. McIntosh against Edwin G. White and others.

A similar entry has been made in the foreclosure action filed by the Union Joint Stock Land Bank of Detroit, Mich., against J. L. Powell and others.

Although a motion for a rehearing was submitted to the court in the case of L. J. Pollock against M. R. Wilson and others, the former order was not modified. The action was for the foreclosure of a chattel mortgage.

In two actions filed by Giuseppe Saraceno against The Milwaukee Ins. Co. and the National Liberty Ins. Co., divisions B and C in the first part of the motion to make the petitions more definite and certain have been sustained. In all other respects the motions have been overruled.

Foreclosure Action
The Columbus Mutual Life Ins. Co. of Columbus has filed a foreclosure action in common pleas court against Edwin S. DeFord, Almeda DeFord and H. E. Lucas to recover on a note executed June 15, 1931, and secured by mortgage deed covering 1839 acres in section 29 West township.

ordered by Juvenile Judge H. W. Hammond to pay his wife 50 per cent of his earnings for the support of their minor child. Fairman was in court for violating terms of a suspended sentence pronounced by former Probate Judge Lodge Riddle. The 50 per cent order will remain in effect until payments equal $10 monthly, and the suspension of sentence has been continued by the court so long as Fairman obeys the order of the court.

Divorce Actions

On the ground of gross neglect of duty, a divorce decree has been granted by Judge W. F. Lones to Pernilla Williams of East Liverpool against her husband, Art L. Williams. The case was not contested, and the plaintiff had her maiden name restored, that of Pernilla Jenke.

The court has granted a divorce to Ora V. Hancock against her husband, Harry Hancock, of East Liverpool, an insurance agent. A petition for alimony was filed in his cause, and when the case was called for trial, there was a contest. The decree was granted on the ground of gross neglect of duty. Alimony, the court has allowed Mrs. Hancock one-third of the money Hancock has on deposit with the Union Savings & Loan Co. and the Potters Savings & Loan Co., at East Liverpool. A judgment has been entered against Hancock for the costs in the case.

Pearl Freeman 176 Wilson street, Salem, has filed a divorce action in common pleas court against her husband, Ross Freeman, Salem, R. T. D. No. 3, charging him with gross neglect of duty. The couple was married at Salem Nov. 2, 1928. In addition to a decree, the plaintiff has asked the court on final hearing of the case to restore her maiden name Pearl Creech.

Fortunately, you can avoid this danger by eating a delicious cereal. Laboratory tests show that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides two things needed to overcome common constipation: "bulk" and vitamin B. ALL-BRAN is also a rich source of iron for the blood.

Biological tests demonstrate that the "bulk" in bran is similar to that in leafy vegetables. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears out the intestinal wastes.

How much better than taking unpleasant patent medicines. Two tablespoonsful of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. Serious cases, with every meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

"GOOD OLD DAYS" GONE

By Arthur Brisbane

(Copyright, 1933, By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

THE HOUSE repeals the prohibition amendment, with no frills or limitations attached. Now the states will decide.

Meanwhile, prohibition-boogie-crime has not retired from the field.

A newsboy early yesterday morning, making the round of speakeasies in New York, came to "Porky's place" in 52d st. All was quiet and of the usual crowd all except three were gone. The three, two men and a woman, were on the floor dead.

ONE DEAD man behind the bar was "Patsy" the bartender, real name Michael Griffin. Another was John Egan, 38-year-old ex-convict. The dead woman, "smarmy dressed and attractive," 28 years old, was identified as Dorothy Miller, alias Dorothy McCarthy. All had been shot in the head, apparently one after the other, quickly, as they were talking together, the weapons held so close that powder marks were left on each one.

Four are held "for investigation." And, meanwhile, more will be shot.

THE COUNTRY has had a long struggle with the demon rum, gradually growing more sober, drinking more beer and less whiskey, until prohibition came, suddenly.

Thomas Jefferson, writing to Charles Yancy, said: "I wish to see beer become common, instead of whisky, which kills one-third of our citizens and ruins their families."

It is not as bad as that now even under prohibition. Far back in the colonial days whisky was a worry. Drunkards were put in the stocks, where small boys and half-sober drunkards amused themselves, peeing the unfortunates with eggs and vegetables. In some cases the drunkard was compelled to wear a large letter "D" around his neck, just as the immoral lady wore a big scarlet "A" on her chest.

But stocks, and letters of different kinds, do not reform drunkards, or cure immorality. You can't do that by law. You can do it by education.

EUROPE, observing Britain's extreme politeness to Japan, under present "irritating conditions," thus explains the politeness.

London thinks that if league of nations interference between China and Japan should force a conflict "England and the United States would bear the brunt of it" and Japan would strike swiftly at American possessions in the Philippines and at British interests in Hong Kong.

You wonder how they would manage to get us into their "bearing the brunt" business.

It should be clear, even to Europe, that this nation will not carry out any league of nations orders or suggestions, or mix up further with foreign squabbles.

If Japan and China decide to fight, we shall let them fight, with our blessing. And if the league of nations and dear old England want to interfere, we shall let them interfere.

The good old days of shipping billions of American money, and millions of men to take part in somebody else's fight have gone by.

JAPAN kept out of the big war, but sent intelligent military "observers" to watch the goings-on. And they learned about war.

From Chinchow in Manchuria, comes news of a Japanese army of 50,000 troops marching ahead, preceded by a wave of airplanes.

This country, some day, will learn that the airplane is really here. Let us hope enlightenment will come before the planes of some other country have given us a first-class demonstration, at the expense of our big cities.

ZANGARA, the would-be murderer of President-elect Roosevelt, pleading guilty, is sentenced to 80 years in prison and asks the judge to "make it 100."

Accused on four charges, sentenced to 20 years in prison for each Zangara says he doesn't want anybody to think him insane. He said to the judge, "Oh, judge, don't be stingy, give me 100 years," and laughed as he was led away.

of 16 able to fill churches to overflowing, necessitating even three overflow meetings?

"If any man will do His will he shall know of the doctrine whether it be of God or myself," says Jesus Christ.

Bowker's Group Leads

"The trouble in all churches today, as of old, is caused by the tongue that speaks out of season—'that has no governor bell.'"

Wallace Bowker's group was in charge of the song, testimony and prayer service.

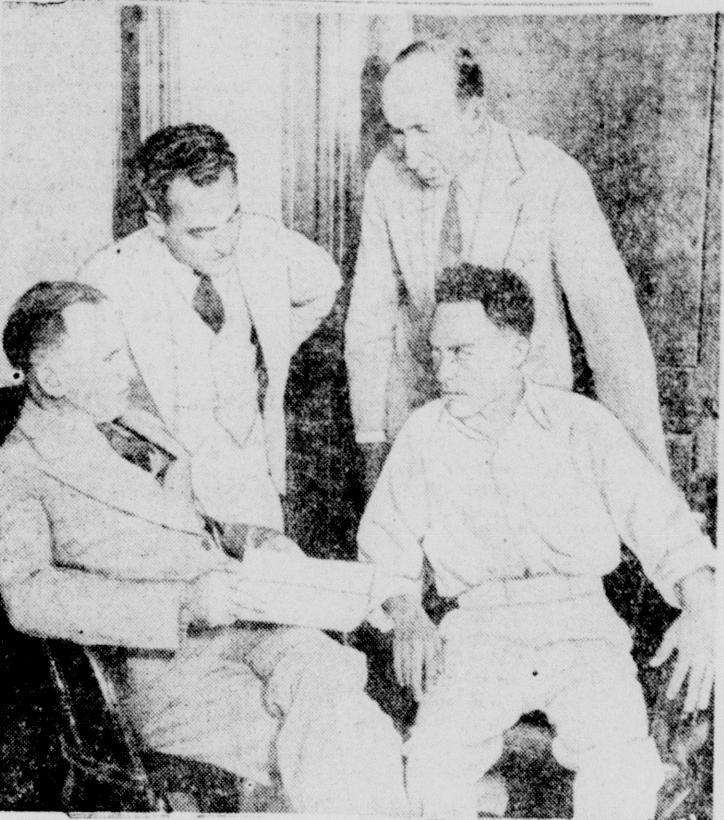

Rev. A. C. Westphal, pastor of the Baptist church, will speak at 7:30 tonight.

Home Elyson's group will be in charge. This group is comprised of R. W. Hutson, John Hoyle, Clare Jeffries, G. F. Jones, Morrison Just, Richard White, C. L. Hunt, Edward Hoyle, Russell Kelley, F. S. Lewis, Harry Lewis, Lewis Long and John Lippiatt.

Four Ohio Cities Grapple With School Fund Problem

Conditions In Alliance, Youngstown, Findlay and Dayton Typical of General Districts

[Editor's Note: Here is the second of a series of articles dealing with the financial plight of Ohio's public schools.]

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 21.—Illustrative of the financial difficulties prevalent in nearly all state school districts are conditions in four cities—Findlay, Dayton, Youngstown and Alliance.

Unless system is devised to assure prompt aid, Findlay's next school year will be on a low standard and hitherto undreamed of, state department of education attaches say.

Every school in Findlay faces the possibility of closing around March 15, some two months before the legal end of the school year. Two or three hundred pupils due to be graduated this spring, will not be able to obtain their diplomas.

Blame New Tax Laws

Findlay's troubles are traced to the new tax laws which have created an obstacle that school authorities have not been able to combat. Under the old uniform rule of taxation, the duplicate embracing real estate, public utilities and personal property totaled $32,288,849. When classification was established two years ago, the duplicate dropped to $24,484,300.

Under the old tax law, Findlay schools had an income based on a 7.8 mill levy—equal to $400,750, and its budget was $379,000. Under the new law, which entails a loss of $37,802,564 in the duplicate, there was a consequent shrinkage in the school proportion amounting to $215,000.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeanette Young Norton

Good Desserts Are Important
Desserts are tremendously important to the meal. Of course there is always ice cream and children always enjoy that dish. But grown ups have their own ideas about dessert, and like tasty, dainty, pretty dishes as a wind-up to the meal.

Here are two recipes:
For pecan tapioca, add six tablespoons of packaged tapioca and a half teaspoon of salt to two cups of scalded milk and cook in double boiler for 15 minutes or until tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Cool. Add three-quarters of a cup of syrup. Chill. Turn into sherbet glasses. Garnish with whipped cream and sprinkle with pecan meats coarsely broken. Serves four.

Chocolate Souffle
Here is quite an elaborate chocolate souffle which is made by cutting into pieces, two and a half squares of unsweetened chocolate, and adding with two tablespoons of packaged tapioca to one cup of scalded milk, cooking all in a double boiler for 15 minutes or until tapioca is clear, stirring frequently. Add two tablespoons butter and remove from fire. Combine one-third of a cup of sugar and the yolks of three eggs beaten till thick and

Today, Findlay is operating on a basis of one-half its budget. Next term, a number of the grade schools will be closed and pupils transported by bus to such schools that are kept open.

Findlay faces the task of levying an additional three mills on its taxes because the present 18.2 rate is not sufficient to guarantee its school operating funds. If the additional three mills is voted, it will add only $70,000 to the school income and this is not sufficient to carry on. Findlay's chief hope is that the three-mill additional tax bill will pass and place it in position to receive state aid.

Dayton Term Shortened
In Dayton, schools did not open until Sept. 25. They closed Dec. 16 and did not reopen until Jan. 3. The term has been shortened. Teachers have been discharged and pupils doubled up.

Normally, the Dayton school term is 40 weeks. It has been cut to 32 for the current season and before the end is in sight this may be cut again.

Youngstown has a deficit as of Jan. 1 of $117,000. Of this amount, $60,000 is owed to teachers as back pay. It has a delinquent tax list of $150,000.

Youngstown's neighboring city, Alliance, also is in a sad plight. It has a deficit as of the end of the year amounting to $40,800. The bulk of this is owed to teachers for salaries. Like Youngstown, Alliance has a huge delinquent tax list.

(Tomorrow: Ohio's rural schools face closing.)

COLUMBIANA

The Sorosis club will meet Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Edw. Bierman, N. Main st., instead of with Mrs. W. H. Britten as scheduled. The program, a miscellaneous one will begin with a roll call on Proverbs-old and new. "What Men Live By" will be discussed in ten-minute talks, as follows: "Work," Mrs. J. J. Quigley; "Play," Mrs. J. J. Eddy; "Love," Mrs. C. D. Strickler; "Worship," Mrs. Fred Theiss. Mrs. C. E. Krumm will give a book review of Lincoln Steffens' autobiography, and Miss Elizabeth Flickinger will have charge of the discussion. Mrs. C. R. Todd will have charge of the music during the recreation period.

Typists Practice

Several pupils of the shorthand and typing classes of Columbianna High school are practicing diligently so that they will be able to participate again this year in the district contest held at McDonald High school. First-year typing pupils are required to do 45 words per minute, and the second-year students must do 60 words per minute. No definite date has as yet been set for this contest.

The Tri-City Luther league met Sunday evening in the Columbianna Lutheran church with Wilbur Donbar as leader. Ruth Henry reviewed the Lutheran Standard news and Helen Douglas led the devotionals.

Plans are being made by the Columbianna Ministerial association for the local observance of "The World's Day of Prayer," which is set for March 3. The local program will be held in the Methodist church at 2:00 p. m.

The W. C. T. U. met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. I. Garrard with Mrs. John Hum and Mrs. L. I. Garrard as leaders. The topic, "The Life of Frances Willard," was presented by Mrs. S. L. Morris. Papers were also read by Mrs. W. A. Heston and Mrs. T. B. Hyland. Mrs. Stanley Fritz gave a report of the recent convention at Columbus.

The financial board of the Presbyterian church met Monday evening at the church to discuss plans for the annual every member campaign.

17 Schools Will Vie For Title In Cage Tournament At Warren

THE DAY IN SPORTS

SALEM HIGH BASKETBALL THAT ALLIANCE BATTLE

THE GREAT triumph of Salem High basketball over Alliance last Friday night will undoubtedly be recorded as the outstanding surprise of a season in which dope upsetting results have proved more the rule than the exception.

Wide open offensives, used by most teams of the district, have on several occasions cracked stout defensive formations wide open and brought victories to unranked aggregations. It's a season in which there is no under dog, topnotch teams have been swept to defeat by those of lesser rank so often that, at the present writing, there is no team which can be adjudged the best of the section.

Salem looked like a real championship aggregation against the Aviators. The fact that, at Alliance, the Quakers tallied but three field goals and 12 points then last week scored 51 points and developed power.

The big puzzle now is: "Where, oh where, has this power been hidden in previous battles?"

DISPLAYING further the mud-dusted up situation as exists in basketball dope this season, take the performance of a mediocre Struthers team as an example.

Denny Schill's last game after game were drubbed by East Palestine twice, 23-21 and 33-21, and lost to Youngstown East and Ursuline and broke even in two games with Boardman. Last week the Struthers lads played Youngstown South, a vaunted quintet which beat Salem. The latter had previously overwhelmed Palestine.

What else did Struthers do but rounce South and when the Schillmen came here Friday night, they determined to come through with another dope-upsetting triumph at the expense of the Quakers.

AFTER THAT brilliant performance of Salem against Alliance, fight fans are more than ever convinced that fight committees of Allen Reynolds post No. 822, Veterans of Foreign Wars, erred in holding their flinty card on the same night as the Quakers play a basketball game.

Fans will flock to the school gym to watch the fine variety quintet in action against the strong Struthers. But just what size audience will enter the V. F. W. hall to watch the fight show argued by Matchmaker Jim Broder, regardless of the attractiveness of the card, is a matter of conjecture.

Salem has a real winner in its 1933 basketball team its spasmoidic performances notwithstanding. Fans back the team in a losing streak; what won't they do now that it has hit its stride?

Incidentally Charles H. Carey post No. 56, American Legion, is planning another all-star fight show for Friday night, March 10. We warn Legionnaires in advance that this may be the night in which Salem will compete in the district tournament at Akron.

This, however, all depends on whether the Quakers serve the tourney at Warren next week.

H. C. Wagner Appointed Manager of Tourney; Name Officials

SCHOOL OFFICIALS TO MEET THURSDAY

Will Make Final Plans For Competition; Opens March 1

With Salem High in the role of defending champion, 17 Northeastern Ohio schools will compete in the annual district basketball tournament at Harding High gymnasium, Warren, on March 1-2-3 and 4. Manager H. C. Wagner announced today.

Wagner has been named manager of the tournament to succeed Pierre Hill, Warren coach who supervised the competition for the past two years. He will meet with coaches and other school officials of the district to arrange final plans for the tournament at Warren Thursday night.

Hill continues as director of the tourney. If all 17 schools listed compete in the competition this year it will be the greatest number ever vying for the sectional title at the Trumbull county emporium.

Salem High won the sectional championship last year, sweeping through all opponents for decisive victories, and also, in the 1931 campaign, was one of the survivors in the event. The Stonemen were eliminated, however, in opening games of the Akron tourney which follows the Warren play-offs.

Contestants Listed

Scheduled to compete in the tourney this year are Salem, Youngstown South, Youngstown Cheney, Youngstown East, Warren, Boardman, East Palestine, Newton Falls, Hubbard, Niles, Lisbon, Struthers, Girard, Brookfield and Campbell Memorial.

Stanley Rausen of Girard and Colebaugh of Youngstown have been named officials. The school winning the tourney flag will earn the right to compete in the Akron eliminations which will be held in the Goodyear auditorium on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 9, 10 and 11.

In this event the Warren winner will vie for honors with survivors of next week's sectional play at Akron and also representatives of the Cleveland district.

BUCKEYE BASKETBALL NEWS

Wittenberg at Wesleyan Wednesday night!

There is the headline attraction on this week's collegiate basketball program in Ohio. Ask any of the old timers what happens when these two schools meet on field or court and they'll tell you plenty.

Then too, there's an added incentive to Wednesday night's game. A victory for either means at least a share of the Buckeye Athletic Association championship while a defeat for either means third place.

Fields Opposes Young Corbett. Welterweight Rivals To Clash In Afternoon Bout Wednesday

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 21.—Their training behind them and keyed up like a pair of race horses, Jackie Fields, welterweight champion, and Young Corbett, Fresno challenger, are eager for their 10-round title fight here tomorrow afternoon.

Boxing fandom continued its speculation over the outcome of the first important battle here in nearly 20 years. Thrust into the unusual role of strong favorite over a champion, Corbett continued the popular figure in the eyes of those who back their judgments with money. Odds of 10-7 with the Fresno southpaw on the long end prevailed, although a shortening up was looked for in some quarters.

The regular drying out process was in order of the day in the two camps with each principal balancing the scales a pound or so over the 147-pound limit. No difficulty in making the weight was anticipated on either side. Each has a $2500 forfeit posted. The official weighing in will be Wednesday morning.

Three years ago tomorrow in this city Corbett scored a close 10-round decision over Fields in a non-title bout. The Fresno left hander is confident he will repeat his victory, this time to be rewarded with the crown.

OHIOANS DEFEAT IOWA; CONTINUE TO TOP BIG TEN

Buckeyes Annex Eighth Straight Victory As 8,500 Look On

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Feb. 21.—Iowa's string of six victories was severed last night as Ohio State continued its march toward the Western Conference basketball championship by defeating the Hawkeyes, 38 to 23.

The Bucks won their eighth consecutive conference game after playing the Iowans on even terms in the first half and beginning the second on the short end of a 14 to 13 score.

Ohio State grabbed its big winning margin just after the score was tied 21-all. Brown, sent in for Hinchman at forward scored eight straight points, and the Iowans blew up.

A crowd of 8,734, the largest of the season, saw the game.

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—Ohio State today lacked only a little of having a death grip on the Western conference basketball championship, even though the figures said six teams had chances of overhauling or tying the Buckeyes.

Departing from the custom of entertaining the spectators with one point decisions, the Buckeyes last night racked up their eighth straight triumph, mauling Iowa, 38 to 23 at Columbus. The defeat was the Hawkeyes' third in nine games, and dropped them down to fourth place in the standing.

Purdue Beats Wildcats

While Ohio was improving its hold on the lead, Northwestern the first ranking threat, took a beating from Purdue, 42 to 40 at Lafayette, Ind.

Michigan, the other five with more than an outside mathematical chance of cutting itself into the title spoils, went back into third place by outpacing Chicago, 35 to 10, at Ann Arbor.

Purdue's victory over Northwestern left it with a "chance" which however, depended on Ohio taking four beatings in a row, while Purdue was winning the same number. Indiana landed in the same situation, defeating Minnesota, 36 to 25, at Minneapolis. Illinois remained in fifth place by smothering Wisconsin, 35 to 10, at Urbana.

Minnesota and Chicago remained soldered in a tie for last place with nine straight setbacks.

Notre Dame Wins Over W. Reserve

(By Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, Feb. 21.—After trying the score at 34-all in the last three minutes of play, Western Reserve lost to Notre Dame last night by a 40 to 35 score.

Two quick field goals by Voegele forward turned the trick for the Irish. The Red Cats threatened several times after pulling away from a 15 to 24 half-time disadvantage.

Brogan Fights Here Friday

Homer Brogan, hard-hitting Dover battler, will appear on the fight card of Salem Veterans of Foreign Wars Friday night, opposing Pete Peroni of Canton in the semi-final battle.

Dickey Withdraws

Brogan will replace Walter Dickey of Salem on the card. Dickey was permitted to withdraw from the show to enable him to continue training for the American Legion boxing tournament in which he will compete at Columbus Saturday.

Dickey, as Northeastern Ohio champion, won the right to compete in the state tournament by decisive victories at Akron two weeks ago.

The Brogan-Peroni fight will be a return engagement, the rivals having collided at Canton recently with Peroni winning the decision. The show, featuring Bob Biederman of Dover against Tax Takla of Cleveland in the main go, and "Smoky Joe" Danielak, Salem, versus Young Tiger Flowers, Massillon, in the main prelim, will be held in the V. F. W. hall, Vine ave.

Tourney At Lisbon

LISBON, Feb. 21.—Due to the fact that Washington's birthday will be observed as a holiday at the David Anderson High school here Wednesday, a basketball tournament has been arranged by the high school students that will continue throughout the day at the high school.

This will be an interclass tournament, and the first game will start at 8:30 a. m.

Ring Gladiator Comes Home

The casket containing the body of Ernie Schaaf, who died following his bout with Primo Carnera in New York after an operation had been performed to remove a blood clot from his brain, is shown as it was taken from the train at Boston for removal to his home. Top photo shows Mrs. Lucy Schaaf, mother of the fighter, who was a pathetic figure at the station to receive the body of her boy.

TODAY'S RADIO PROGRAMS

The Do Re Mi trio will attempt what technicians call a "four-point" broadcast for the Thursday afternoon programs on WABC.

Each of the girls will go to the top of a different New York skyscraper, with their accompanist in the studio, and sing just as if they were grouped around the piano. The idea is to blend them together at a central control board.

A woman will do part of the descriptive broadcasting for WABC-CBS in its presidential inauguration pickup. She will be Isabelle Leighton, author, and she will have four opportunities between 9 a. m. and 4 p. m. to give a woman's viewpoint of the ceremonies.

WEAF-WJZ-NBC also is to be on the air for the continuous stretch between 9:30 a. m. and 4 p. m. that day.

Amelia Earhart, trans-Atlantic flier, will be the first woman to appear in the Edwin C. Hill inter-views being conducted on WABC-CBS Friday night.

Try These Tonight
WEAF-NBC-7:30—Jimmy Milton, songs; 9—Ben Bernie; 9:30—Ed Wynn; 11—Jay Dennis and Ted Reese.

WABC-CBS-6:30—Sen. Robinson of Arkansas speaking in inauguration; 9:30—California melodies; 10—Mario Chamlee, operatic tenor; 11—Howard Barlow, great composer program, "Debussy."

WJZ-NBC-8—Crime Club; 9:30—Deep River orchestra; 10:30—Hornay Bailey, soprano; 12—Cab Calloway orchestra.

Wednesday High Spots

WEAF-NBC-2:30 p. m.—Sketch, "Washington's First Defeat," 3—Wagner opera cycle, "Tannhauser." WABC-CBS-11:15 a. m.—Sons of Veterans Washington birthday celebration; 6:30—Dick Mansfield's orchestra.

WJZ-NBC-10:30 a. m.—Washington birthday celebration; 3:15—Story of Washington's Farewell Address; Rep. Sol Bloom of New York and Band.

Knights of Columbus

Three candidates were initiated in the first degree at a meeting of Salem council No. 1818, Knights of Columbus, Monday evening at the hall, South Broadway.

A social period with lunch followed the session. The next meeting will be in one week.

Joins Sorority

Miss Adelaide Dyball, daughter of Mrs. E. E. Dyball, East Third st., a junior at Ohio university, Athens, has been initiated into the Phi Chi Delta, her family here has been advised.

The Phi Chi Delta is a national sorority for Presbyterian girls.

Lone Hann Fined $300

Lone Hann, North Broadway, was fined $300 and costs by Mayor John M. Davidson Monday on a charge of unlawful possession of intoxicating liquors. He was lodged in the county jail at Lisbon in default of the fine.

Cottage Prayer Meeting

A cottage prayer meeting will be held at 7:30 tonight at the home of Mrs. J. E. Evans, 251 West Second st. Miss Anna Shanker will be the leader. The service is open to the public.

Y. P. B. Meets

The Young Peoples Branch of the W. C. T. U. will hold a business meeting at the home of Miss Sara Sara Starbuck, North Ellsworth ave., at 8 p. m. Wednesday. All members are urged to be present.

Committee To Meet

The executive committee of Salem's independent Farmers institute will meet at 8 p. m. Thursday at Memorial building.

A financial report of this year's institute will be given and plans made for next year's programs.

Recent Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Robusch, 315 West Seventh st., are the parents of a daughter, born this morning at the Salem City hospital.

MISSING BOY'S BODY IS FOUND

Fear Is Believed to Have Caused Death of Tot, Thought Kidnaped

stormy Oct. 22, or some unusual disturbance in the rainy night, fatally frightened the lad probably never will be known. Those who knew Ebert best said the natural timidity of the child argued against his wandering into the ravine alone but police theorized that he might have tried a short cut home to avoid as much as possible of the wind and rain that lashed about him.

Earth Leaves Cover Body

A thin layer of earth and leaves covered the body, indicating it had been undiscovered during the four months. It was discovered by accident by Wilbert Kranstuber, 22, and Albert Miller, 24, when they were attracted to the spot by the barking of their dog.

The father, George Holleran, an unemployed iron worker, helped identify the boy. He remarked that with other searches he had "walked" within ten yards of where my boy lay.

Mrs. Holleran who suffered a nervous breakdown soon after her boy disappeared, said simply, "I'm glad it's over. I hope it would be different, but at least the suspense is over."

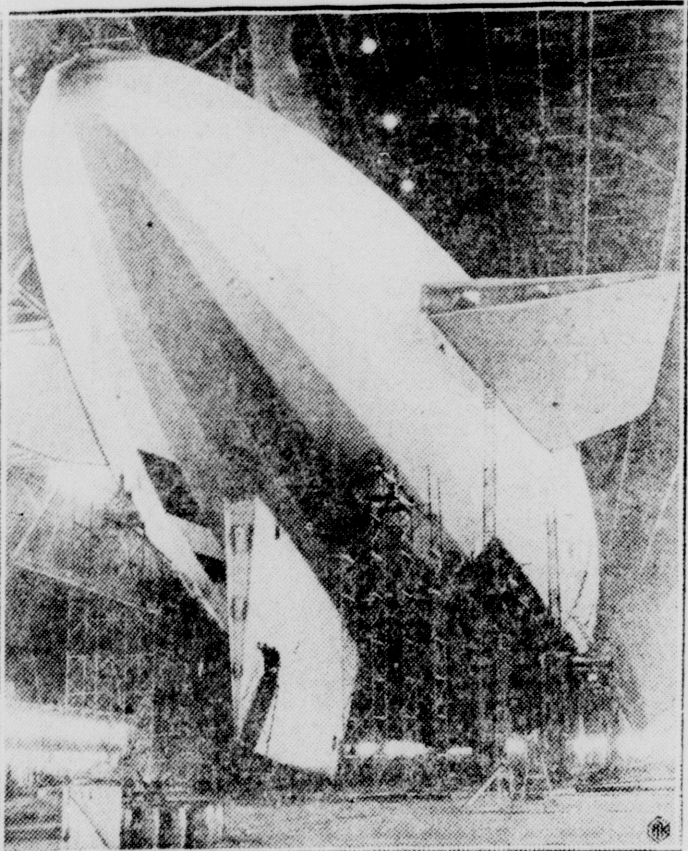

PHILADELPHIA — A play, "City Looking Glass," written by Robert Montgomery Bird about 1828, was presented by the Zoosophic society of the University of Pennsylvania. The old play, believed never to have been produced, was found in the university library among some old papers.

Melancholy Mission

Wearing a heavy mourning veil, Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, daughter-in-law of the late Mrs. Oliver H. P. Belmont, is shown as she left the pier after meeting the liner Berengaria, which brought the body of Mrs. Belmont back to New York for burial. The grand old lady, who once ruled undisputed over New York's "Four Hundred," died in Paris.

Macon Is Nearly Ready For the Air

The giant airship Macon, sister ship of the U. S. S. Akron, is shown in her hangar at Akron, Ohio, where the finishing touches are being applied preparatory to her christening on March 11. Mrs. W. A. Moffett, wife of Rear Admiral Moffett, Chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics, will be the ship's official sponsor. The Macon is scheduled to make her first flight about March 21.

THEATER Attractions

Eddie Cantor

Eddie Cantor, star of "The Kid From Spain" main feature now playing at the State theater.

EDDIE CANTOR as a pop-eyed matador, a hundred dark-eyed serenitas, beautiful and lavish scenes, an exciting light-tune, tuneful music, songs by Cantor, clever dances, romance—all this and more awaits you at the State theater as "The Kid From Spain" Cantor's latest picture, is playing there.

Romantic Story

Nonsense and song, as bubbling as Eddie himself, is a gay romantic fable of love under the Mexican moon, a story of the matadors with all the grace and valor that make up the sport of bullfighting in Spain. With Eddie as the unwilling and much misunderstood matador—Don Sebastian II.

Three songs in one of which the electric blond comedienne—Lida Roberti, joins Eddie, enables him to tell you what happens "In The Moonlight" of "What A Perfect Combination" he and his partner make and then "Look What You've Done" against a background of lavish beauty, beautiful girls and delightful music.

Good Cast
Prominent in the big cast that
